MARANTZ PROFESSIONAL TO BE FEATURED AT PODCAST ACADEMY #6

ITASCA, IL, September 28, 2007— D&M Professional, manufacturer of the renowned Marantz Professional series of recording products, is pleased to announce that Marantz Professional Brand Manager Brian Gorman gave a sneak peak of the Marantz PMD620 Hand-Held Digital Compact Recorder at Podcast Academy #6. This preview was held at the 3rd annual Podcast & New Media Expo in Ontario CA, on September 27th. The PMD620 further underscores Marantz Professional's ongoing commitment to providing podcasters and broadcast journalists with the most intuitive, state-of-the-art digital recording equipment on the market.

The Podcast Academy #6 is a one-day event that focuses on the knowledge and information needed for the professional podcaster, corporate practitioner, or person responsible for podcasting. Attendees benefit from the day-long course-style approach, including lots of Q & A and the ability to interact with the instructors. Marantz Professional has been involved in the Podcast Academy since its very beginning and this year is one of the sponsors of the event.

As Brand Manager for Marantz Professional products, encompassing both installation and portable recorders, Brian Gorman continues to help Marantz maintain strong brand direction and identity in the markets it serves. Brian has been involved in the industry for over 25 years with a solid foundation in pro audio and product development.

About Podcast and New Media Expo:

The 3rd Annual Podcast & New Media Expo, taking place in Ontario, California, is an annual convention that educates individuals and companies about how to produce high-quality audio and video digital content, grow a loyal audience, and market or monetize that content in creative ways. The Expo is also a major networking event where content creators can share ideas and build partnerships. Through unique conference sessions, free exhibit hall presentations, networking functions and an exhibit hall, the entire event is devoted to the industry of creating, delivering, and profiting from unique digital content for the Internet and any device the consumer chooses. Podcast and New Media Expo was named Expo Magazine's "Best New Show" winner for 2006.
